

Message by Secretary ICERT

On behalf of the International Council for Education Research and Training (ICERT), it is my great pleasure to welcome you to Volume 3, Issue 3 of Eduphoria, covering the period of July to September 2025.

First, I want to extend my sincere congratulations to the entire editorial team and our dedicated authors. The successful publication of Vol 3, Issue 2 was a testament to your hard work, meticulous dedication, and the high standards of scholarship that define our magazine. Your contributions have continued to enrich the multidisciplinary dialogue at the heart of our mission, and we are truly grateful.

As we move forward, this new issue marks a powerful shift in focus toward the future. The world is changing at an unprecedented pace, and with it, the need to equip our youth with the skills, confidence, and vision to lead. This edition of Eduphoria is dedicated to youth empowerment—a theme that resonates deeply with ICERT's mission to "Empower Communities, Promote Learning and Development Globally."

Inside this issue, you will find insightful articles exploring how education can be a catalyst for change, from fostering innovative skills to nurturing entrepreneurial mindsets in young people. We believe that true empowerment goes beyond just imparting knowledge; it's about providing the tools for our youth to become active participants in shaping their own lives and a better future for all.

Thank you again to everyone who makes Eduphoria a beacon of academic excellence. We invite you to engage with the compelling research and perspectives within these pages and join us in this vital conversation about building a more skilled, empowered, and vibrant generation.

Prof. (Dr) Sandeep Kumar

Secretary

International Council for Education Research and Training (ICERT)